English Prologue

This is not a new teaching, or even a teaching, although everyone learns as they travel. I am attempting to show the pathway God laid out for human beings in the Garden of Eden and the path Jesus took so we could follow Him back into God's presence as citizens in His Kingdom. If you are tired of boring lectures without power, life, or destiny?

The Kingdom of God is here. The kingdom is still full of joy, peace, and excitement in today's world.

It is not God's future plan, but rather today's agenda. Therefore, the Lord is accepting volunteers to join the kingdom's goal of establishing the mindset of His kingdom in the hearts of believers today.

If you identify as a Christian, live with the hope of attaining Heaven, and believe you will be raptured out of the current cultural war, you have become a victim of the devil's schemes and a party to their success. He always wants you to delay accepting the things of God until it is too late for them to affect the world we live in today. Discover what Satan is stealing from you today.

Because Jesus has finished all things needed for life and Godliness, our family, city, state, country, and world's future depends upon our recognizing, believing, claiming, and living in all of the things of God today, not tomorrow.

God has established our identity as His child at the cross.

A willing and obedient heart is all it takes to live, move, and have your being, identity, and destiny in God. Therefore, passionately strive to establish a true legacy for your children. Without any exaggeration, I can say, enter at the risk of being forever changed!

Seek the Kingdom of God First

The Kingdom of God is a relationship that forms and expands into a corporate living spiritual organism or body of God's people. In response to Jesus' prayer in John 17, God and His people are forming into one spiritual person, making up His body.

When a person is born again, they become one with God and others who have been born again. However, many have never learned of this truth or believed it. They are waiting for some future manifestation of these conditions. God is only waiting for us to accept what He has given us and start walking in it. The expression of being one with God will happen as our minds transform into Christ's mind, and we begin to stop disagreeing with Him. It is much like tuning an orchestra to a tuning fork. When we put our souls in tune with Jesus, we will be in tune with each other and start making the music God has been waiting to hear.

The restoration with God comes from the renewed relationship in the Kingdom of God. In Him, we are reunited with God and become a part of the Godhead. Therefore, every life that God has breathed into a human being at birth has the possibility of our acceptance and of our return to the former relationship Adam had with God. First, however, each must believe and receive this gift.

- Jesus preached the Kingdom of God.
- Jesus displayed the power of the Kingdom of God.
- Jesus taught the laws (requirements) of the Kingdom of God.
- Jesus gives us hope in the Kingdom of God.
- Jesus revealed the promises of the Kingdom of God and gave us the keys to those pledges.
 - Love
 - Hope
 - Faith
 - Obedience

Jesus gave us the power to become those promises and keep His commandments. It shook the listeners when Jesus announced that the Kingdom of Heaven (God's abode) was at hand. His accompanying statement, "The Kingdom of God is within you, jarred His listeners even further.

To better understand this, I think looking at some of Israel's earlier relations with God would be helpful.

After leaving Egypt, the people of Israel met with God at Mount Sinai.

Exodus 19:16-18 KJV

(16) And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled.

(17) And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

(18) And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.

Was it any great surprise that the people of Israel were not ready for this same God to come and live in them, even if it was in the Kingdom of Heaven? They were afraid to talk to Him personally and had appointed Moses. Their fear kept them at a safer distance from God. Jesus was always talking about the God whose presence shook the mountain, making it blaze and smoke.

It was too much for them to accept when He said God wanted to move into their hearts. To paraphrase, the high priest finally said, "It is expedient for us that one man should die for the people and that the whole nation perish not."

Since I first heard people preaching the Bible several years ago, I have learned that God's purpose was to send Jesus to save us. He did come as our salvation, to heal us, etc., but none of these are the goals that brought Him to earth. His purpose or mission, according to His words to Pilate, was:

John 18:37 KJV

(37) Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

Adam's sin was to depart from the truth of God. When Satan told them they could be like God. He was misleading them, as His children. They were already like God. When Jesus was born, He was the son of a great King, therefore, a king Himself. As a King, he was to bear witness to the truth of God, reversing the lie that Satan had established. Having been born again, and physical descendants of a son of God, Adam, our true identity is children and sons of God. Accepting this Identity, and no other, is essential for a full relationship with God. Jesus came into the world to set up His kingdom. I believe this, not salvation, should be our worldview in interpreting the actions of God on earth. Salvation is a vital part of His mission.

However, when we place salvation as our worldview, we have made the gospel man-centered, not God-centered. The correct gospel worldview is "the Kingdom of God and Heaven are at hand." That is God's worldview and truth. All the other things that Christ secured for us are good news.

But that is not the gospel God announced through Jesus. His good news is that the Kingdom of God has come upon you, not in words but in power. When we read the Bible and our worldview that the Kingdom of God is the purpose of God, it will clear up a lot of confusion and misunderstanding. Placing man as the centerpiece of God's purpose always creates confusion and misinterpretations of God. Adam was a kingdom person, and until sin entered, they were one with God.

The term Kingdom of God refers to the same link between Jesus the King and the chosen body of Christ, who becomes His bride. Toward the end of the book, we see the holy city "New Jerusalem" coming down from God.

I want to clarify a bit here. A city is not the buildings, streets, and lights we would call a city. We could build houses, businesses, rail, buses, etc., but you do not have a town until you have people. If all the people left a thriving city like New York City, it would no longer be a city but the place where the metropolis once thrived.

The city of New Jerusalem is not the buildings, streets of gold, or beautiful gates. Therefore, Jesus will not be marrying a structure. Instead, the bride of Jesus is a people without spots or wrinkles.

So, the Bible is about the King and His kingdom from beginning to end. It is the Father's good pleasure to give us the kingdom. He wanted us to seek and enter this relationship with Jesus and become His kingdom.
