

Powerfully Purposed Transformation

Joe T. Green

Accepting God's Identity for You is Everything---Following Jesus into God's Kingdom---and surrendering to His Lordship Today---This is God's formula for changing mankind, revealing His will for your life, and winning the war for your soul.

Romans 12:2 KJV

(2) And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

English Prologue

This is not a new teaching, or even a teaching, although everyone learns as they travel. I am attempting to show the pathway God laid out for human beings in the Garden of Eden and the path Jesus took so we could follow Him back into God's presence as citizens in His Kingdom. If you are tired of boring lectures without power, life, or destiny?

The Kingdom of God is here. The kingdom is still full of joy, peace, and excitement in today's world.

It is not God's future plan, but rather today's agenda. Therefore, the Lord is accepting volunteers to join the kingdom's goal of establishing the mindset of His kingdom in the hearts of believers today.

If you identify as a Christian, live with the hope of attaining Heaven, and believe you will be raptured out of the current cultural war, you have become a victim of the devil's schemes and a party to their success. He always wants you to delay accepting the things of God until it is too late for them to affect the world we live in today. Discover what Satan is stealing from you today.

Because Jesus has finished all things needed for life and Godliness, our family, city, state, country, and world's future depends upon our recognizing, believing, claiming, and living in all of the things of God today, not tomorrow.

God has established our identity as His child at the cross.

A willing and obedient heart is all it takes to live, move, and have your being, identity, and destiny in God. Therefore, passionately strive to establish a true legacy for your children. Without any exaggeration, I can say, enter at the risk of being forever changed!

Our Identity

Mark 8:22-26 KJV

(22) And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

(23) And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

(24) And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

(25) After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

(26) And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

The results of the Lord's first prayer were to restore spiritual sight to the blind man. The second prayer led to the restoration of man's physical sight. I think this is a direct tie to the first chapter of Psalms.

Psalms 1:1-3 KJV

(1) Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

(2) But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

(3) And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

God compared man to a tree planted near the water (in the right environment, e.g., God's Word). What an incredible promise of prosperity for the righteous who carry the nature of God in their spirit.

It is one of the greatest miracles possible when God makes us a new creation and begins saving our souls. Receiving the baptism in the Holy Spirit is also life-changing. However, having God reveal who we are in Him and making that revelation a reality in our lives will transform us as nothing else can. Nevertheless, transformation is often an ongoing process that takes many years. Reflecting, I know God has led me through His step-by-step process, never knowing whether there was a next step or what it might be. It has been a walk of faith, believing in the goodness of God.

of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God

Because God Himself compares us to trees, I want to tell a story that presents one of God's life-changing principles.

If we were to place an acorn on a shelf in our home, it would lie there for many years and never increase or change significantly. However, it would grow if we took it out and buried it in a fertile location where it received the proper water and sunlight. Inside, that acorn has everything needed to become an oak tree. And upon maturity, it will produce many more acorns. If conditions are correct, many more oak trees will soon be growing. Eventually, it could become a forest of oak trees. Thus, every acorn has the potential to become a forest of trees.

Genesis 1:28 KJV

(28) And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

When we plant the acorn in the proper soil and provide the right nutrition and water, it will grow into a large oak tree in due time. Every year, it should have a crop of acorns. That is what the Lord commanded when He told us to be fruitful. Of course, there are many ways, but I use only one as an example. When we take the crop of acorns each year and plant them, we follow God's command to multiply.

Soon, we would have more acorns than we had land to plant them. Perhaps we could sell them for animal feed or to people who want to start a tree farm if we have been producing them for many years. Each year, we could harvest mature trees. We could establish a sawmill to produce furniture-grade lumber from trees harvested at higher elevations. We want to sell enough furniture and cabinets to develop and take control of that market. That is in response to God's command to replenish and subdue the earth. We could also do likewise with the other trees we sell.

When we meet Jesus at the cross and become born again by God, He has placed His seed in us. We have the spiritual DNA and the nature of our Father God. Inside us, we have everything we need to live as a child of God, a son of God, a saint, an ambassador, a king, a priest unto God, etc. However, the first order in your maturity is to develop fruit. Being fruitful is the first command of God. The fruit brings life and love into your relationships with God, people, and animals. When Jesus saw the fig tree without fruit, He cursed it from the roots, and the tree immediately died. Fruit is necessary to be acceptable to God.

John 15:5-6 KJV

(5) I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

(6) If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

It is from the fruit that the next generation will be born. That fulfills the second commandment of God, which is to multiply, and leads to the third command, which is to replenish the world with the life of God. When this process is complete, the whole earth and its ruling systems have been submitted to God and covered with His nature (glory). Mankind then reigns and has dominion over the entire globe and the world systems.

The eagle and the Lion are the only animals God has used to compare or describe Himself. Each of these animals is king over its domain. The eagle is the king of the sky, and the Lion is the king of the earth.

The eagle is known for its keen eyesight. He can also soar at heights that almost all other birds cannot reach and see food that the other birds cannot find. He is also the only bird that does not flock. He will be found alone or in small groups. He is a type of son of God, born a king.

God feeds us with four levels of food. He gives us milk for the newborn, bread for the children, meat for the mature, and hidden manna for the sons of God, the food of eagles.

We identify the lion as king because of his attitude: he believes he is king and has dominion over the other animals. Therefore, it is valid for him. When he sees an elephant, he thinks of lunch. The elephant's strength or size intimidates the lion in any way. The lion only thinks, "I can eat this thing." That displays God's principle: as a man thinks in His heart (mind), so is he.

We must answer the question, "Who do we think we are?" Do you see yourself as a lamb to be food for the lion? Or is your vision of yourself as the lion that eats the lamb? God sees you as His son, born a king and priest unto God. He sees you as the lion and eagle. Are you in agreement with Him, or are you still rebelling against Him? As Jesus said, "Repent, for the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of Heaven are at hand." Repent means to change our way of thinking. Allowing God to renew our minds is the path to that transformation. Therefore, our first purpose in life should be to permit God to train us to rule and reign with Him as king and priest.

Ruling and reigning with Christ without the training to do either is foolish or could be disastrous.

Despite what we may have learned from the Christian religion, God never intended us to become lambs or the sheep of His pasture. The transformation that happens when we rebel makes us lambs. When we return to the Lord, He makes us kings. It is up to us to allow the conversion of our minds to that of a lion. Every seed of God has all things within it to be a leader, king, priest, and son of God. It is the Holy Spirit's function to help us change our minds. It is time for us to partner with Him and direct our footsteps toward those goals.

Prayer

Father, I ask you to reveal to me through the Holy Spirit who I am in you. Show me who you have created me to become. Lead me in that training until I reach your required maturity as a son of God, king, and priest unto God. Please be patient and speak clearly and loudly so I do not get lost. I ask it in the name of Jesus, Amen.
