English Prologue

This is not a new teaching, or even a teaching, although everyone learns as they travel. I am attempting to show the pathway God laid out for human beings in the Garden of Eden and the path Jesus took so we could follow Him back into God's presence as citizens in His Kingdom. If you are tired of boring lectures without power, life, or destiny?

The Kingdom of God is here. The kingdom is still full of joy, peace, and excitement in today's world.

It is not God's future plan, but rather today's agenda. Therefore, the Lord is accepting volunteers to join the kingdom's goal of establishing the mindset of His kingdom in the hearts of believers today.

If you identify as a Christian, live with the hope of attaining Heaven, and believe you will be raptured out of the current cultural war, you have become a victim of the devil's schemes and a party to their success. He always wants you to delay accepting the things of God until it is too late for them to affect the world we live in today. Discover what Satan is stealing from you today.

Because Jesus has finished all things needed for life and Godliness, our family, city, state, country, and world's future depends upon our recognizing, believing, claiming, and living in all of the things of God today, not tomorrow.

God has established our identity as His child at the cross.

A willing and obedient heart is all it takes to live, move, and have your being, identity, and destiny in God. Therefore, passionately strive to establish a true legacy for your children. Without any exaggeration, I can say, enter at the risk of being forever changed!

The Holy Spirit/Our Governor

A kingdom is a type of government led by a king with total authority over the people. The king also owns the people and the land. Because Christ bought us with His blood, He now owns us. This concept may be difficult for some, but rebellion is not a good choice.

Expanding his kingdom by acquiring new land is the primary way a king increases his kingdom and glory. He may occupy, purchase, or conquer land for an increase. When God, the king, wished to expand His empire, He started by creating the earth, which He needed for mankind. He added the universe to support it. He now owns the land and the remainder of the cosmos because He made it.

When a king acquires land, he will dispatch a governor to express his desires to the people and establish His new colony. One of the first requirements of the king/governor is for the people to learn the new king's language and understand his wishes.

Every person must then learn the kingdom's new laws. Disobedience is not an option. All disobedience is considered rebellion against the king and is punishable by death. The governor is the administrator of this new government. The governor must be a citizen of the king's established country because he must know the king and the kingdom's laws to teach the king's heart to the new colony.

After God created the earth, He placed His son, Adam, on the earth to rule over the planet as Him. For Adam to do this, he needed a body to live in, so his Father created a suit of dirt for him to use.

Adam had no one to share in His administration of the earth, so God divided him in half. Each half had its own body but was one person in nature. God named them Adam---mankind---Genesis 5:1-2. Adam was exactly like God and walked with God as one person.

When Adam rebelled against God, they no longer saw things as God saw them, and the man named the woman Eve. For the first time, he saw her as a separate person from himself. This rebellion cost Adam his kingdom and authority. He had submitted himself to Satan and became like him in nature. Still, he lost his kingdom authority, not his sonship — Luke 15:11-32. This parable of the prodigal son, an example of salvation, explicitly shows the Father looking for the return of His son. However, the son wanted to return as a servant. How many of us do the same thing, believing God wants servants when the Father is looking for His sons to return?

Galatians 4:7

(7) Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

It is the assignment of the Holy Spirit to reveal the king's heart, Jesus, to us, but it is our place to have faith in the new king and agree with Him. Therefore, this is not a religious activity but a function of the new kingdom.
