

Powerfully Purposed Transformation

Joe T. Green

Accepting God's Identity for You is Everything---Following Jesus into God's Kingdom---and surrendering to His Lordship Today---This is God's formula for changing mankind, revealing His will for your life, and winning the war for your soul.

Romans 12:2 KJV

(2) And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

English Prologue

This is not a new teaching, or even a teaching, although everyone learns as they travel. I am attempting to show the pathway God laid out for human beings in the Garden of Eden and the path Jesus took so we could follow Him back into God's presence as citizens in His Kingdom. If you are tired of boring lectures without power, life, or destiny?

The Kingdom of God is here. The kingdom is still full of joy, peace, and excitement in today's world.

It is not God's future plan, but rather today's agenda. Therefore, the Lord is accepting volunteers to join the kingdom's goal of establishing the mindset of His kingdom in the hearts of believers today.

If you identify as a Christian, live with the hope of attaining Heaven, and believe you will be raptured out of the current cultural war, you have become a victim of the devil's schemes and a party to their success. He always wants you to delay accepting the things of God until it is too late for them to affect the world we live in today. Discover what Satan is stealing from you today.

Because Jesus has finished all things needed for life and Godliness, our family, city, state, country, and world's future depends upon our recognizing, believing, claiming, and living in all of the things of God today, not tomorrow.

God has established our identity as His child at the cross.

A willing and obedient heart is all it takes to live, move, and have your being, identity, and destiny in God. Therefore, passionately strive to establish a true legacy for your children. Without any exaggeration, I can say, enter at the risk of being forever changed!

Reborn and Saved

Matthew 16:24-25 KJV

(24) Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

(25) For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

When we come to Jesus, He will always bring us to His cross for the meeting. Here, we must exchange our rebellious spirit for His obedient spirit. We submit our old nature to be crucified in Him at the cross. Then, we are born again by His Spirit of life entering us and becoming a new creation in Him. God tells us we now have eternal life. He has taken our old man of rebellion against God and given us His spirit---Romans 6:6---that cries out, "Abba Father. I have come to do thy will" is the voice of the reborn. We are of one spirit and have the nature of God within us. Our spirit can no longer sin.

1 John 3:9 KJV

(9) Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

Our soul is a matter altogether different. Our soul consists of two separate areas: our conscious and subconscious minds. Our conscious mind protects and is the gateway to the subconscious mind. The subconscious mind is the heart of our soul and is where our worldview resides. Because of its importance, it is where the Holy Spirit dominates and aids us in working out our salvation. It is here that He reveals Jesus to us. As we allow, it is here that He forms the mind of Christ in us by changing our way of thinking until we reach the full measure of the stature of Christ. Salvation is renewing our minds and transforming us into His image and likeness. This transformation occurs in our souls, which are our minds, will, and emotions. The New Testament often refers to this as a person's heart (Strong's G2588).

We cannot overstate the importance of the subconscious mind. As a man thinks in his heart, so is he. I want to repeat a short story that I first heard from Dr. Myles Munroe.

A Lion is the king of the jungle, not because of its size, strength, or intellect. He is king because of his attitude. When the lion sees an elephant, he thinks of only one thing: "lunch." Although much bigger and stronger, the elephant has only one thought: "I am about to be eaten." The big difference between them is their attitude.

If we allow the Holy Spirit to renew our minds with God's words, we will see ourselves as God sees us. We need to allow Him to transform our attitudes. He tells us we are children of God, sons of God, ambassadors of God, priests unto God, kings, and the bride of Christ. Most of us know these facts. Our question is: have we acquired additional knowledge or transformed our minds to see ourselves as God sees us? Our question is: Do we conduct ourselves as ambassadors of God, directed and funded by Him to complete our life's assignment on a mission for God? To be wealthy in this life, we must see ourselves as God sees us and live accordingly.

I have quoted the following three paragraphs from a website: <https://thriveglobal.com/stories/subconscious-mind-how-to-unlock-and-use-its-power/>)

The subconscious mind is the powerful secondary system that runs everything in your life. Therefore, learning how to stimulate communication between the conscious and the subconscious minds is a powerful tool for success, happiness, and riches.

The subconscious mind is a data bank for everything that is not in your conscious mind. It stores your beliefs, past experiences, memories, and skills. Everything you have seen, done, or thought is also there.

It is also your guidance system. It constantly monitors the information coming from the senses for dangers and opportunities. And it would communicate that information to the conscious mind.

The subconscious mind comprises about eighty-seven percent of our total mind capacity. Our spirit was reborn, but our soul needs salvation. Salvation is an ongoing process that begins at the cross and continues throughout our lives. God has instructed us to work out our salvation with fear and trembling daily. The transformation of our subconscious minds is necessary for living a godly life. If we view our salvation as a one-time event, this will curtail our spiritual growth.

One way to transfer thoughts from our conscious mind to our subconscious mind is to speak them aloud. The more emotion used when speaking, the more significant the impact on long-term memory. For example, the listener easily recalls the passionate, faith-filled word.

renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Ephesians 4:23 KJV

(23) And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

Jesus commanded us to love Him with all of our minds. So, this would also include the subconscious mind.

Matthew 22:37 KJV

(37) Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

Because Jesus, the king, commanded us to love Him with our spirit, soul, and mind, I believe it would be a good idea to do as He has instructed. Because every word spoken from the mouth of a king is a law, and every infraction can be punishable by death.

The Lord outlined how to submit our minds/hearts to God.

Philippians 4:8-9 KJV

(8) Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

(9) Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

Practicing these things establishes your heart in peace and anchors your vocal life in godliness. But conversely, if your speech is ungodly, your thought life has rebelled against this commandment.

In 2005, I moved to Florida and officially retired. During the following year, my wife and I enjoyed the good life. We ate and drank as it pleased us. That lifestyle eventually took a toll on my health and significantly increased my weight. It was at this time that I sought medical help. My blood sugar levels had risen to the point where I needed medication. The Doctor suggested I either lose some serious weight or start on medication. I opted for exercise and dieting.

I immediately started walking every morning and watching my diet. I was not too fond of walking. It was the most boring thing I have ever undertaken. I would not have minded jogging as much; at least I felt like I was getting somewhere when I ran. However, I was beyond the age and weight limit to jog safely.

After a few weeks, I noticed something unusual while walking. First, my mind would turn to the Lord. I would then start meditating on the concepts and ideas Christ presented in the Bible. It finally dawned on me that the Lord was trying to teach me something about Himself, and He was speaking to me. He had repeated some things many times, so I started repeating aloud the thoughts He spoke to my mind to help me remember them. It did work, although He still had to repeat them several times. Often, I would feel it necessary to write them down when I got home from my walk.

Since that time, I have looked forward to my daily walk. Sometimes it is indoors, and other times outdoors, but I always commune with the Lord. That practice has continued to this day. I think of it as my walk to Emmaus because the Lord joined me as I walked, disclosing His word to me. That daily communication has led to countless writings and the publication of several booklets and books, including this one.

The Lord describes our walk with Him like this.

Isaiah 35:8-10 AMPC

(8) And a highway shall be there, and a way; and it shall be called the Holy Way. The unclean shall not pass over it, but it shall be for the redeemed; the wayfaring men, yes, the simple ones and fools, shall not err in it and lose their way.

(9) No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it; they shall not be found there. But the redeemed shall walk on it.

(10) And the ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion with singing, and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

This spiritual highway, called the highway of holiness, began at the Garden of Eden and led into New Jerusalem. Holiness was the pathway that the Word of God walked, so this highway was called the way of the tree of life. Jesus referred to this when He said, "I am the way." He established the way onto the Highway of Holiness.

Genesis 3:24 KJV

(24) So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

Entry onto this highway assured access into heavenly places; consequently, God placed angels at the gateway into the garden to protect Heaven from invasion by rebellious people. No human could walk in holiness; therefore, God must intervene.

Fortunately, Jesus entered the world, lived a holy life, imputed His righteousness to believers, and established a crossroad/entrance ramp for the Highway of Holiness. As a result, godly believers could freely enter New Jerusalem, pass through the city gate, and be seated beside Christ in heavenly places. Here, God discloses His purpose in our daily walk with Him.
